SUMMERTIME SERVICE LEARNING
One week. One life changing opportunity.

Service Learning is a teaching and learning strategy that integrates meaningful community service with instruction and reflection to enrich the learning experience, teach civic responsibility, and strengthen communities.

- Courses require out of town travel. Food and lodging is paid. Students are responsible for 1-unit of tuition.
- Registration is open to all masters (MPH) and doctoral (DrPH/PhD) level public health students.
- Dual degree MPH students (LAS, MAS, Law, MD) are strongly encouraged to enroll.
- Priority registration will be given to MPH-Family and Child Health (domestic) students for CPH 597A/B.

Limited Space
Courses Fill Fast

Sponsored by the Rural Health Professions Program, a partnership of Arizona Area Health Education Centers Program and the Mel and Enid Zuckerman College of Public Health