Speakers

Olga Trujillo
Olga Trujillo is an attorney, a nationally sought speaker, critically acclaimed author and survivor. Her experience includes working for the U.S. Department of Justice in the Office for Victims of Crime. As a private attorney, she is a consultant to many local, state and national organizations. Olga is featured in the video “A Survivor’s Story”, a documentary and training video based on her personal experience of violence.

Chief Steve Stahl
Steve Stahl is Chief of Police for the City of Maricopa. His 25 year law enforcement career includes supervising investigations of sexual assault, child abuse, DV, and missing persons. He has worked with the National Children’s Alliance, Western Region Child & Family Advocacy Network and was the first President of the Arizona Child and Family Advocacy Network. Chief Stahl holds a M.Ed./Counseling from Northern Arizona University.

Wambui Bahati
Wambui Bahati is a nationally acclaimed inspirational and motivational speaker, author and entertainer. This dynamic survivor draws upon her diverse background filled with challenging adversities that she miraculously overcame to become a promoter of holistic mental health and DV advocacy. Wambui wrote, produced and stars in the one-woman musical Balancing Act and I am DV.
