RESILIENCY BUILDING AND TRAUMA INFORMED APPROACHES TO YOUTH SUBSTANCE USE PREVENTION, TREATMENT, AND RECOVERY

March 05, 2021 1:00 PM to 2:30 PM
HOSTED VIRTUALLY ON ZOOM

This webinar will be presented by Community Prevention Coalition Youth Substance Misuse Prevention Coordinator, Charlie Moses. The webinar is open to anyone in Arizona interested in the topic, which may include parents, providers, educators, law enforcement or others.

REGISTER HERE!
1-hour of CEU has been applied for

Topics Covered:

- The necessity of trauma informed approaches and resiliency building for Prevention, Treatment, and Recovery
- Brain development, the stages of addiction, and the effects substances have on the developing brain
- Screening, Brief Intervention, and Referral to Treatment, treatment, and harm reduction

Learning Objectives:

- Analyze the neurobiological and social issues associated with substance use, misuse, and addiction.
- Assess evidence-based prevention, treatment, and recovery services and supports for youth and families.
- Choose resources that will support youth and families in Arizona communities.