Arizona Telemedicine Training Conference
Flagstaff Medical Center’s McGee Auditorium
1200 N. Beaver St., Flagstaff, AZ
Friday, October 7, 2016 9 am – 4:30 pm
$300 registration fee waived for Arizona residents

Nationally recognized speakers will present on:
- The business of telemedicine
- Arizona policy and legislative updates
- Telespsychiatry
- Selling telemedicine to your organization
- Teleneurology, telestroke, and tele-epilepsy
- Recruiting telehealth physicians
- eICU (electronic intensive care unit)
- Building partnerships for successful telehealth care delivery
- Chronic disease management through telemedicine
- Telemedicine and telehealth standards and guidelines
- Telemedicine resources

Target audience:
Healthcare professionals or administrators who are new to telemedicine, who have some telehealth experience and want to expand services and/or understand successful applications of the technology, or who represent an experienced telemedicine organization

Registration is limited
Go to http://telemedicine.arizona.edu/training
Lunch is provided for registered attendees.

Questions:
Tracy Skinner: 520-626-6103
Nancy Rowe: 928-266-1164

Presented by the Arizona Telemedicine Program and the Southwest Telehealth Resource Center with cosponsors Health Choice Integrated Care, North Country Healthcare and Northern Arizona Healthcare

The Arizona Telemedicine Program’s training events are accredited by the American Telemedicine Association.

Arizona Telemedicine Course: Applications, Model Programs and Secrets for Success