

40th Annual Arizona Rural Health Conference 'The Evolution of Rural Health'

August 20 & 21, 2013 | Prescott, Arizona

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

The Center for Rural Health at The University of Arizona, Mel and Enid Zuckerman College of Public Health proudly invites you to be a Sponsor of the 40th Annual Arizona Rural Health Conference 'The Evolution of Rural Health.' Plans to celebrate this huge milestone will include a banquet, entertainment, and national and local speakers who will address current & pressing healthcare issues centered on the following conference tracks: HIT Meaningful Use & Telemedicine, Affordable Care Act Implications & Community Health Trends, and Clinical & Administrative Rural Health Issues.

Sponsoring the conference is a great way to increase your organization's visibility, promote your products and/or services, network and exchange information with a statewide audience of health care professionals, administrators, policy makers, state and local leaders, and several others. Past conferences have attracted anywhere from 130 to 215 participants and between 18-27 exhibitors.

Your support allows us to offer discounted registration fees to presenters and students and maintain an affordable registration fee which includes all conference materials, attending all educational sessions and meals.

To learn more about the Conference visit our website at <http://www.crh.arizona.edu/events/annual-conference>.

Please contact me should you have any questions.
