

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

The Arizona Center for Rural Health at the University of Arizona, Mel and Enid Zuckerman College of Public Health is seeking sponsors for their 47th Annual Arizona Rural Health Conference to be held at the High Country Conference Center in Flagstaff, Arizona.

The conference addresses health care issues relevant to rural and tribal communities, fosters collaboration, highlights statewide program and projects, and provides networking opportunities. Attendees include health care providers, hospital & clinic administrators, behavioral health professionals, academia, county health representatives, state & local leaders, and others.

Your financial support will allow us to continue to offer scholarships (lodging and free registration) and maintain an affordable registration fee which includes conference materials, presentations and meals.

Please review the sponsorship levels and corresponding benefits below and see which best suits your organization. Thank you for your consideration of our request.
