

Position Title: Student Worker (Needs Assessment Coordinator)
Department: 4209-Community, Environment and Policy, Center for Rural Health
College/Division: Mel and Enid Zuckerman College of Public Health (MEZCOPH)
Category: Student Group C
Job Open Date: February 8, 2021
Job close date: August 31, 2021
Benefits Eligible: No
Full/Part Time: Temporary, Part-time
Compensation: $17/hour, 10 hours per week<sup>1</sup>
Reports to: Alyssa Padilla, MPH Community Outreach Manager
Contact Info: alydilla@email.arizona.edu
Location: Work remote

Program overview: The Arizona Center for Rural Health (AzCRH) at The University of Arizona (UArizona) is the State Office of Rural Health working to improve the health and wellness of rural and underserved populations.

Position Summary: Collaborate with Arizona Center for Rural Health to implement the Overdose Data to Action needs assessment with Critical Access Hospitals in Arizona to assess the status of their opioid stewardship programs.

Essential Functions: Conducts the needs assessment with 17 Critical Access Hospitals, c supports data analysis and interpretation, writes a summary report and other dissemination products, and identifies local, statewide and national avenues for dissemination.

Ideal candidate: The ideal candidate will be a Master's degree-seeking student in the Mel and Enid Zuckerman College of Public Health and must be enrolled in at least 6 units in Spring semester 2021 and Summer semester 2021. The student should possess the following knowledge and skills:

- Knowledge of public health policy.
- Knowledge of rural health and rural health policy.
- Familiarity with social determinants of health.
- Familiarity with opioid use and overdose risk factors.
- Skill in efficiently collecting and compiling data.
- Ability to effectively and professionally communicate.

Apply at <https://crh.arizona.edu/programs/internships>

Note: This can be considered a MEZCOPH Masters internship project.

---

<sup>1</sup> <https://policy.arizona.edu/employmenthuman-resources/allowable-work-hours-student-workers>